BALGRISTae: We have started this meeting and we wish to begin by buying; by taking over DipFth tho's grain production we can stabilize and further regulate our economy.

RQO'ILIAS slams his fist on the table, 'No! You WILL starve us out with that and unbeknownst to Apotheum Colleseum the collected presidents are cornering in on Apotheum Colleseum and there is severe antagonism on all sides. So what do you have to say?'

So the meeting continues...

DipFtho Tholka dressed dressed in her stretch suit, deep blue with 3 mauve silver satin vertical lines. She has white wings triple lacquered attached to her ears. She has elliptical tinted glasses on.

DipFthb tholka smoothly says, "Do not admire these frabby colleagues of mine who have just spoken for the conflict is concentrated on Apotheum Colleseum. The high council's open now."

RQO'ILIAS does the official opening ritual which is tossing a lit lucifer into the benzine filled saucer in the middle of the rectangular plastic/metal compounded conference table with 10 chairs.

Dipth Tholka, neutral, the mediator, is at the head dressed all in black with a gangster's top-hat and black fine-lined suit (estimated value 10000 munts)

Bal Gristae is in a light pastel grey costume with embedded black metal triangles opposite to Dipth Tholka.

The room is 4 times the area of the table, is domed and has futuristic lights connected by thin metal cables at the beginning of the dome. They are conically shaped with nostalgic purple tints, are ten in number, and are didactically placed.

They begin digging into the happening.

Sodam Insan rookt een sigaar.

QuiZarkFi rookt sjekie.

Daverd Torm rookt menthol.

Wilior the II rookt wiet.

AZTRAKARAR rookt ganga. + the empty chair
Chkri han rookt wierook. rookt alles.
Bal Gristae rookt een sigaraat
Rqo'ILIAS rookt niets (he is the mediator)
Dipftr tholka rookt hemp.
Why I don't know.
